Dear Readers,

Consider this 1965 yearbook as a memoir of the time applied in developing your minds and morals at T.H. S.

This accomplished milestone expresses the thoughts and feelings we have toward the years we've spent at Trinity.

We, the co-editors, have endeavored to present this year within a book as would be pleasing to all. We hope this book radiates the feeling of love, joy, and honor that comes from being so vital a part of your lives at Trinity.

Sincerely,

Brenda Siler
Norma Jones

Administration

Head of the faculty, principal, C. Wilton Hawkins, is continuously guiding THS students to a more educated, therefore, a more prosperous life.

Mrs. Hilda Brady, school secretary, is efficient and competent as well as possessing the most pleasing personality which is loved by all.

Guidance counselor, Mr. Charles Baldwin, has displayed the fine quality of a natural perception of what is right and what is wrong. His discretion in dealing with persons and difficult situations is appreciated by all.

Assistant principal, D. S. Underwood, is "Mr. Hawkin's right-hand man." With a warm smile and friendly manner he goes far beyond his assigned duty.

Without a library, where could one go for research, for a source of information, and for a way of relaxation. Miss Felton certainly keeps the high school library in tact with never failing precision.

To keep our school system running smoothly and accurately is the duty of the school board. The members are, left to right: Mr. C. Wilton Hawkins; Mr. Howard Younts, chairman; Mr. E. W. Welborn, secretary; Mr. Robert R. Mendenhall; Mr. Glenn Albertson; Mr. Clyde Ayers, co-chairman.

Members of P.T.A., standing left to right, are: Mr. Farlow, Mr. Aubrey Bowman, Mr. B. M. Lane, Mr. Joel Williams, Mr. Joe Skeen, Mr. Burger. Seated, left to right, are: Mrs. Dorotay Hall, Mrs. Judy Pegram; Mrs. Joyce Welborn; Mrs. Doreen Greene; and Mrs. Pika Winslow.

Commendable Services

Maintaining the cleanliness of our school are Margaret Gannaway, Christine Ewings, Feramae Robertson, Floyd Herndon, and George Love.

With tireless effort the maids, janitors, and cafeteria helpers provide Trinity students with a clean school and nourishing lunches.

Greg, Wayne, Donald,
J.C., and James were top

give them a hand!

Candidly Speaking . . .

Work! Work! Work! That's all I hear!

Is this really all there is to it?

I've heard of togetherness, but this is ridiculous.

Great golfing weather, n'est-ce pas?

I know there's a button here someplace.

My card, "Mr. Michael

Pssst! Hey! Cindy!

Nancy - Lee!

My hero—oo!

Mike the bartender, "What'll ya have?"

Rolls Royce? Where?

Nice picture, eh? Who's the?

All's quiet on the library scene.

Troop 69!

Psst! Psst! Hey Cin-dee!

I told you we'd be late for school, we should've ridden the bus.

What snow? I don't see any snow. Do you see any snow?

I must hurry ' Macbeth just won't wait.

Altogether now—one more chorus.

Another J. Dewey book?

I don't know what happened, we followed the directions.

The Riches of the English Tongue

The story of the English language begins about 15 hundred years ago with Hengist and Horso, warriors from Germany who came to Britain, bringing the English language with them. They came to fight for Britain's king, Vortigern, against the Picts. But when the Germanic soldiers—Angles, Saxons, and Jutes—saw what good land Britain was and how weak the country was, they began to fight against Vortigern to take the land for themselves.

That early Anglo-Saxon tongue that migrated to England was not at all like its great great-grandchild which we speak today.

A Mode of Expression

This is the story of how a great and gifted nation was welded together by wisdom and by the sword. It involves a story of romance and adventure, of war, and treachery and crime, but more than that, of steady and brave endurance, of toil and intelligence, and of constant, eager progress.

A display of French post cards brings to life a room, and highlights a tour of France.

Using tools and machines, these boys are learning a trade which will profit them a lifetime.

Agriculture

The F.F.A. is a national organization throughout the United States. The primary aim of the Future Farmers of America is the development of agricultural leadership, co-operation and citizenship. The colors of the F.F.A. are National Blue and Corn Gold. The motto consists of only four lines, but these lines are filled with practical philosophy reflecting a spirit and sincerity that shows the true view point of farm youth. The motto is as follows:

Learning To Do
Doing To Learn
Earning To Live
Living To Serve

Coaches

Coach Martin Poyner attended Moxoch High School near Nag's Head in the eastern part of North Carolina. He graduated from High Point College in 1958 and has been teaching at Trinity since 1960. He is the assistant football coach and has been head coach of the girls' basketball team for the past four years. Recently he has been coaching the boys' basketball team and has displayed a fine coaching technique in the field.

Coach Bob Fulp attended Trinity High School and later graduated from High Point College. He enrolled into the University of North Carolina where he obtained his Master's degree in physical education. He has coached at Trinity for the past eight years and has been head-coach for five years. He has lead the Bulldogs to a great many titles which proves his ability in coaching football, basketball, baseball, track and golf.

Coach Hiatt was no stranger when he assumed the duties of head basketball coach since his own school days were spent at Trinity. His first year as head coach for the girls' team was a great success. His understanding and desire to help young people account for this. The Trinity sports fans would like to congratulate and thank him for the time and talent that he has given to build a team such as Trinity had in 1964-1965.

Mrs. Kennerly is indispensable to her students.

As a teacher she guides her pupils as to the right choices to make.

She's just as efficient at home as she is at school.

APPRECIATION . . .

We, the '65 Senior Class, have solemnly devoted our yearbook to a woman out of admiration, gratitude, and esteem. She has diligently worked for seven years never considering reward.

Her genial smile, confident manner, and that keen desire to help students has elevated her to a prominent and commendable person in our eyes.

With exceeding joy and pleasure we dedicate the 1965 Tinnian to Mrs. Linda Kennerly.

Mrs. Kennerly is always wearing that contented smile, but she radiates even more when she is with Buddy and Silence.

A Daughter of the American Revolution

D. A. R. Good Citizen, Cynthia Annette Harris, has outstanding characteristics which make her very deserving of this title.

After being chosen D. A. R. Good Citizen, Cindy attended a luncheon in Salisbury where she visited historical sites. Then she presented a speech to members of the D. A. R. of this district at Emerywood Country Club on "What the D. A. R. Good Citizenship means to me."

Congratulations, Cindy! We're very proud of you.
